

Proposal

- Proposal and consultation coordinated by Proponent.
- Submission to the Place Names Office by the 31st March each year.

Review

- Proposal referred to the Aboriginal and Dual Naming Reference Group for enquiry, correspondence with community and research.
- Naming Report provided to the Place Names Office by 30th September each year.

Advertise

- Proposal advertised on Placenames Tasmania and regional Tasmanian newspapers calling for submissions.

Deliberate

- Proposal, Reference Group report and submissions received referred to the Place Names Advisory Panel.

Decision

- The Panel recommendation referred to the Minister.

Approval

- If approved by the Minister the status of the name is updated in Placenames Tasmania. The name is now approved.

Gazette

- Approved names will be gazetted annually as a notification only.