

Gillian Unicomb

While I have no problem with the amendments, the problem is offenders getting away with suspended sentences. Suggest increasing fines to a very high level. Helps the coffers and loss of money is a greater deterrent than a suspended sentence