

44 Aboriginal and dual names have been assigned under the Aboriginal and Dual Naming Policy.6 Aboriginal and dual names assigned on the 19 December 2013:

- Truwana / Cape Barren Island - dual name
(pronounced tru wah nah)
- Larapuna - in the vicinity of and including the Bay of Fires
(pronounced lah rah pu nah)
- Kunanyi / Mount Wellington - dual name
(pronounced ku nah nyee)
- Putalina - in the vicinity of Oyster Cove
(pronounced pu tah lee nah)
- Kanamaluka / River Tamar - dual name
(pronounced kah nah mah lu kah)
- Takayna / Tarkine - dual name pronounced tah kie nah)

7 Aboriginal dual names assigned on the 19 January 2016:

- Wukalina / Mount William - dual name
(pronounced wu kah lee nah)
- Yingina / Great Lake - dual name
(pronounced yeeng ee nah)
- Titima / Trefoil Island - dual name
(pronounced tee tee mah)
- Laraturunawn / Sundown Point - dual name
(pronounced lah rah tu ru nawn)
- Nungu / West Point - dual name
(pronounced nung u)
- Taypalaka / Green Point - dual name
(pronounced tie pah lah kah)
- Pinmatik / Rocky Cape - dual name
(pronounced peen mah teek)

15 Aboriginal and dual names assigned on the 26 March 2021:

- Kaninerwidic - the inner island of The Doughboys (pronounced (ka nina widic)
- Karrernootong - the outer island of The Doughboys
(pronounced kara nu tong)
- Koindrim / The Doughboys – dual name
(pronounced koin drim)
- Kennaook / Cape Grim – dual name
(pronounced ken nah ook)
- Konewongener / Mount Horror – dual name
(pronounced kgona wongk una)
- Leengtenner / Tomahawk River – dual name
(pronounced lein g tena)
- Luemerrernanner / Cape Portland – dual name
(pronounced lu ah merer nana)
- Polelewawta / Little Forester River – dual name
(pronounced poh ele wa u ta)
- Poonerluttener / Mount Cameron – dual name
(pronounced puna lu tena)
- Tangumrounpeender / Waterhouse Point – dual name
(pronounced than gum rowun peen da)
- Taneneryouer - replacement name for Suicide Bay
(pronounced tarn nena oower)
- Temdudheker / Woolnorth Point – dual name
(pronounced tem u hakar)
- Teralina / Eaglehawk Neck – dual name
(pronounced tera leena)
- Turrakana / Tasman Peninsula – dual name
(pronounced turu kunna)
- Tebrakunna - the Cape Portland area
(pronounced the bpra kg oona)

3 Aboriginal dual names assigned on the 23 December 2021:

- Larener / George Rocks – dual name
(pronounced lah ren ah)
- Tinamirakuna / Macquarie River – dual name
(pronounced teen nah mee rah ku nah)
- Tareerpattel-tarerenner / Ninth Island – dual name
(pronounced tah ree ah pat tell - tah ah ren ah)

44 Aboriginal and dual names have been assigned under the Aboriginal and Dual Naming Policy.3 Aboriginal dual names assigned on the 4 May 2022:

- Roobala Mangana / Tenth Island – dual name
(pronounced roo-bah-lah man-gunna)
- Warenekomekar / Swan Island – dual name
(pronounced wah-ren-ah-kome-ah-car)
- Wayterkobuner / Waterhouse Island – dual name
(pronounced way-tah-koh-bun-nah)

10 Aboriginal and dual names assigned on the 25 February 2023:

- Larnerrangener / Great Musselroe River – dual name
(pronounced larn-er-rang-en-er)
- Lueberrneterne / Little Musselroe River – dual name
(pronounced lue-ber-rer-ne-tern-ne)
- Luethcracener / Doctors Peak – dual name
(pronounced lueth-crac-en-er)
- Lumeragenena Wuggelena / St Patricks Head – dual name
(pronounced lu-mer-a-gen-ena wug-gel-ena)
- Meetermer / George River – dual name
(pronounced mee-ter-mer)
- Rownunne / Little Mount Horror – dual name
(pronounced row-nun-ne)
- Tareerpatertanne – in the vicinity of and including
West Sandy Point and East Sandy Point
(pronounced ta-reer-pater-tan-ne)
- Tulampanga / Gog Range – dual name
(pronounced tu-lahm-pah-ngah)
- Worewoter / Little Pipers River – dual name
(pronounced wore-wot-er)
- Worewoterpeender - point west of Little Pipers River.
(pronounced wore-wot-er-peen-der)