

I support the indefinite extension of the moratorium on GMOs in Tasmania, due to the risks posed to our environment, human and animal health, and our economy. These are too important to be undermined. Thank-you for taking this submission into account.

Regards

Susan Austin

---

Being a revolutionary is the nicest and hardest thing. It is the greatest duty, but there is no cheaper way to be happy -Celia Hart