

11 January 2018

ATTENTION ALL TRAINERS & HORSE HANDLERS

Office of Racing Integrity issues a reminder to all Trainers and Horse Handlers that under the Rules of Racing you can be subject to either or both drug and alcohol testing, whilst performing your duties.

This includes raceday, trials and trackwork.

ORI will be undertaking drug and alcohol testing in the foreseeable future and you are reminded to ensure that whilst working or handling horses you are free of banned substances or alcohol.

Trainers and Horse Handlers are placed on notice should they be in breach of the Rules in this regard severe penalties may be imposed.

John Zucal
Chairman of Stewards – Thoroughbred