ATTENTION JOCKEYS – INCREASED PENALTIES

Jockeys please be advised that as racing in Tasmania enters the summer carnival, with more feature races and higher stake money on offer, effective immediately penalties will be increased for all rule breaches.

For careless riding charges which are deemed to be mid-range, the minimum penalty will commence at a two (2) race meeting suspension.

Jockeys are also reminded that any whip rule breach through this period may also incur a more severe penalty, with the minimum penalty to commence at $200.
