

Environment

Bird/Bat Strike Form

Document No	HSH4UKKX5UTY-2-70835
Version	Version 1
Issue Date	May 2015

If a dead or injured bird or bat or feather spot is found at Woolnorth Wind Farm holding wind farms and associated assets complete this form as soon as possible. Complete one form for each bird/bat or featherspot found.

Also note:

- This report is to be used in conjunction with the Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response.
- Email the completed form to [redacted] and cc [redacted] - ASAP.
- Collect the dead bird (including feather spots) or bat (according to Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response), removing all remains.
- Before collection ensure a photograph is taken (showing date and location). Insert or attach photo to this form.
- Caution - For injured birds or bat Refer to Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response

Incident details
Reference number (office use only - report number and year, e.g. xxx/xx): 261/19
Site: Bluff Point <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Studland Bay <input type="checkbox"/> Musselroe <input type="checkbox"/>
Date and time found: 16/01/2019, 13:00	Observer/collector: [redacted]
Turbine/location where found: AD, 60m NNE	GPS Coordinates (GDA 94 format): Not collected
Found during dedicated survey? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Species of bird or bat ("unknown", if not known): white-bellied sea-eagle Haliaeetus leucogaster
Found dead, injured or feather spot?: Dead <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Injured <input type="checkbox"/> Feather spot <input type="checkbox"/>
Age (adult or juvenile, if known): Adult <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Immature <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Juvenile <input type="checkbox"/> Unknown <input type="checkbox"/>
Sex (male or female, if known): Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female <input type="checkbox"/> Unknown <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Estimate of general weather at time of incident ("unknown", if not known): Unknown
Note: Landscape and close-up photograph taken and attached?: Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

it is a requirement to report "feather spots" (defined as a collection of ten feathers and/or three flight feathers – primaries, secondaries or retrices).

Distance from tower found (m)
(move or mark X on the diagram below – lines are 20m intervals):

Other notes (e.g. evidence of scavenging (describe), estimated collision date, distribution of material):

Recent collision, evidence of fresh blood. Right wing severed, located close to main body.

RTI-DL-RELEASE-DR-IPWE

Environment

Bird/Bat Strike Form

Document No	HSH4UKKX5UTY-2-70835
Version	Version 1
Issue Date	May 2015

If a dead or injured bird or bat or feather spot is found at Woolnorth Wind Farm holding wind farms and associated assets complete this form as soon as possible. Complete one form for each bird/bat or featherspot found.

Also note:

- This report is to be used in conjunction with the Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response.
- Email the completed form to [redacted] and cc [redacted] - ASAP.
- Collect the dead bird (including feather spots) or bat (according to Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response), removing all remains.
- Before collection ensure a photograph is taken (showing date and location). Insert or attach photo to this form.
- Caution - For injured birds or bat Refer to Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response

Incident details
Reference number (office use only - report number and year, e.g. xxx/xx): 238/19WF
Site: Bluff Point <input type="checkbox"/> Studland Bay <input type="checkbox"/> Musselroe <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Date and time found: 23/01/19 12:10	Observer/collector: [redacted]
Turbine/location where found: D01 35m SW	GPS Coordinates (GDA 94 format): 0587568E 5484848N
Found during dedicated survey? Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>
Species of bird or bat ("unknown"), if not known: Wedged-tailed Eagle Aquila audax fleayi
Found dead, injured or feather spot?: Dead <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Injured <input type="checkbox"/> Feather spot <input type="checkbox"/>
Age (adult or juvenile, if known): Adult <input type="checkbox"/> Immature <input type="checkbox"/> Juvenile <input type="checkbox"/> Unknown <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Sex (male or female, if known): Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female <input type="checkbox"/> Unknown <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Estimate of general weather at time of incident ("unknown", if not known): Unknown
Landscape and close-up photograph taken and attached?: Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

Note: it is a requirement to report "feather spots" (defined as a collection of ten feathers and/or three flight feathers – primaries, secondaries or retrices).

Distance from tower found (m) (move or mark X on the diagram below – lines are 20m intervals):	Other notes (e.g. evidence of scavenging (describe), estimated collision date, distribution of material): Head and legs not found with body.
--	---

Environment

Bird/Bat Strike Form

Document No	HS4UKKX5UTY-2-70835
Version	Version 1
Issue Date	May 2015

If a dead or injured bird or bat or feather spot is found at Woolnorth Wind Farm holding wind farms and associated assets complete this form as soon as possible. Complete one form for each bird/bat or featherspot found.

Also note:

- This report is to be used in conjunction with the Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response.
- Email the completed form to [redacted] and cc [redacted] - ASAP.
- Collect the dead bird (including feather spots) or bat (according to Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response), removing all remains.
- Before collection ensure a photograph is taken (showing date and location). Insert or attach photo to this form.
- Caution - For injured birds or bat Refer to Procedure Injured or Dead Birds and Bat Response

Incident details
Reference number (office use only - report number and year, e.g. xxx/xx): 262-19
Site: Bluff Point <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Studland Bay <input type="checkbox"/> Musselroe <input type="checkbox"/>
Date and time found: 1 st April 2019, 10:30am	Observer/collector: [redacted]
Turbine/location where found: DH, 32m NW	GPS Coordinates (GDA 94 format): 305176 E: 5487069 N
Found during dedicated survey? Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Species of bird or bat ("unknown", if not known): Wedge-tailed eagle, Aquila audax fleayi
Found dead, injured or feather spot?: Dead <input type="checkbox"/> Injured <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Feather spot <input type="checkbox"/>
Age (adult or juvenile, if known): Adult <input type="checkbox"/> Immature <input type="checkbox"/> Juvenile <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Unknown <input type="checkbox"/>
Sex (male or female, if known): Male <input type="checkbox"/> Female <input type="checkbox"/> Unknown <input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
Estimate of general weather at time of incident ("unknown", if not known): Unknown
Landscape and close-up photograph taken and attached?: Yes <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> No <input type="checkbox"/>

Note: it is a requirement to report "feather spots" (defined as a collection of ten feathers and/or three flight feathers – primaries, secondaries or retrices).

Distance from tower found (m) (move or mark X on the diagram below – lines are 20m intervals):	Other notes (e.g. evidence of scavenging (describe), estimated collision date, distribution of material): Found by wind farm technicians, collected by [redacted] and taken immediately to the [redacted] Vet.
--	--

