Amy Cora underwent a post-race veterinary examination and no injury could be detected. A post-race swab sample was taken from Our Macca Boy, the winner of the event. Stewards spoke to trainer Mr P Phillips in relation to Adabelle's race manners approaching and around the first turn. Acting on their own observations, viewing the official replays and taking evidence off Mr Phillips, Stewards were of the opinion that approaching the first turn, Adabelle had been galloped on and dragged down by Amy Cora and then subsequently turned its head outwards, bumping with this greyhound on a number of occasions. After viewing the official replays a number of times, Stewards could not be satisfied that Adabelle had turned its head outwards of its own accord due to the initial interference suffered and as such took no further action against this greyhound.
