Stewards spoke to Trainer Mr N Howard & Mr A Bullock in relation to Pretty Boy Roy's and Quick Redemption's race manners in the home straight. Acting on their own observations, viewing the official replays and taking evidence off Mr Howard & Mr Bullock, Stewards were unable to ascertain if Pretty Boy Roy had momentarily turned his head inwards entering the home straight. Further into the home straight, Stewards then ascertained that Pretty Boy Roy bumped with Quick Redemption to its inside when attempted to cross to the rails as Quick Redemption was attempting to obtain a position wider on the track resulting in both greyhounds bumping on two occasions and subsequently losing a minor amount of ground whilst racing side by side in the home straight. As Stewards could not be satisfied both greyhounds momentary head turns were a voluntary action by the greyhounds and taking into account the fact that the interference with Pretty Boy Roy and Quick Redemption played a significant part in the incident, Stewards placed a warning on the racing manners of both greyhounds.
