In the home straight, Buckle Up Bahati checked across the heels of More Sambuca. Buckle Up Bahati underwent a post-race veterinary examination, and no apparent injury could be detected. Stewards spoke to trainer representative Mrs Robyn Johnson in relation to Buckle Up Bahati's race manners in the home straight. Acting on their own observations and viewing the official replays, Stewards were of the opinion that Buckle Up Bahati had turned its head inwards and made head or muzzle contact to More Sambuca on two occasions and by doing so marred the running of that greyhound pursuant to GAR69(1). Acting under the provisions of GAR69(2)(a), Buckle Up Bahati has been stood down from racing for a period of 28 days, Devonport only and until the completion of a satisfactory trial.
