Hardaway Brady was declared a late scratching at 6.10pm on 10th May 2022, when it became apparent that the transmission of the faxed scratching was not received by the Office of Racing Integrity. Trainer representative Mrs Robyn Johnson provided stewards with the transmission report showing that the scratching had been sent prior to the official scratching time. Subsequently, Hardaway Brady was stood down from racing for a period of 10 days, pursuant to GAR76(4). Fly Calypso underwent a post-race veterinary examination after making heavy contact with the catching pen gate. Veterinary examination revealed that Fly Calypso suffered a catastrophic spinal injury and was subsequently euthanised.
