TIME: 30.27

Super Suspect underwent a post-race veterinary examination, and no injury could be detected. Stewards spoke with Trainer representative Mr R Stocks in relation to Super Suspect's race manners in the home straight. Acting on their own observations and viewing the official replays, Stewards were of the opinion that Super Suspect had turned its head outward in the home straight and by doing so had failed to pursue the lure with due commitment throughout the event pursuant to GAR124. Acting under the provisions of GAR127(a), Super Suspect has been stood down from racing for a period of 28 days Launceston only and until the completion of a satisfactory trial. Dippy Danger underwent a post-race veterinary examination, and no injury could be detected. As a result of being carried up the track by Super Suspect when that greyhound turned its head, no action was taken against Dippy Danger.

Wynburn Venus underwent a post-race veterinary examination, and no injury could be detected. Posh Danger underwent a post-race veterinary examination, and no injury could be detected. Wynburn Venus and Posh Danger turned their heads outwards in the home straight with their attention being averted to Super Suspect carrying Dippy Danger up the track in front of them. Taking into account the inexperience of the two greyhounds and the circumstances unfolding in front of them, stewards took no action other than to place warnings on the race manners of Wynburn Venus and Posh Danger.
