Nathan Earl went up with the lids, and as a consequence appeared to contact his right shoulder and foreleg to the inside of the starting box lids. Stewards delayed all clear to allow for a post-race veterinary examination of this dog to ensure that no injury had been sustained that would prevent this greyhound from participating on equal terms with other starters in this event. Nathan Earl suffered a small wound to its left foreleg and a right fore carpal sprain. Stewards acting on veterinary advice were satisfied that this injury was unlikely to have been sustained during the start of this event. The all clear was given on the judge's numbers. Nathan Earl has been stood down from racing for a period of 14 days. A post-race swab sample was taken from Buckle Up Eli.
